

Your Most Wanted Getaways -- Discounted Just for You

More than 1,000 of you shared your dream vacations with us on Facebook, then -- surprise! -- we got you exclusive deals in your top 10 destinations in celebration of our 10th anniversary. So click through our slideshow to explore all your amazing options, then pick up a copy of the November issue to score the discount codes you'll need. Happy travels! Note: Deals are subject to availability while supplies last (plus blackout dates) and are valid for booking October 8 through November 30, even if your trip is going to happen later.

By Abbie Kozolchyk

Triumph Hotels

← PREV

NEXT →

7/34

New York

Whether you want to stay near Central Park, the Theater District or another choice slice of the Big Apple, Triumph Hotels is offering you seven possible pads, each a work of architectural art meant to give a strong sense of place and history. Case in point: Hotel Belleclaire, a 1903 Upper West Side landmark where Mark Twain once stayed.

Triumph Hotels

← PREV

NEXT →

8/34

New York

Or perhaps you'd prefer James Dean's old haunt? If so, stay at the Iroquois New York in Midtown, also home to the pre- and post-theater hotspot Triomphe.

Triumph Hotels

← PREV

NEXT →

9/34

New York

Or stay in an Art Deco classic -- Hotel Edison -- that's named for the guy who first turned on the lights there: one Thomas Alva Edison. Whichever outpost you choose, it comes with a great bonus: free walking tour! From $179 per night (rates normally start at $224) with the discount code in our November issue; triumphhotels.com; valid for stays from November 1, 2015, through March 31, 2016. Blackout dates: major holidays and New York City events.